Brilliant English Woman.

Lady Huggins, now that Miss Agnes Clerke is dead, says a London writer, may be regarded as our only lady astronomer of real eminence. When about ten years old Miss Margaret Murray, as she then was, went to work at astronomy systematically, and by the time she married Dr. Huggins she knew enough to be of the greatest assistance to him. They established themselves at the Tulse Hill, then a mere lane in the midst of fields, and carried out the "new" astronomy, the principle of which was to investigate not only the motions of the heavenly bodies, but also what they are made of. Lady Huggins is, indeed, a many-sided woman, for she has managed to find time to cultivate music, painting, wood-carving and botany, and she is devoted to her beautiful garden. She is a great judge of bric-a-brac, and possesses some wonderful examples of medieval craftsmanship. She plays the piano, the organ and the concertina.

THOMAS IS AGAIN GUILTY

His Great Catch Saves the Game.

ERRORS WERE COSTLY

Marion is Defeated in a 3 to 1 Score.

Line Burners Smote the Ball but Hits were not Forthcoming When Bingle Meant Runs.

By Fred Sypher.

Youngstown, Ohio, August 2.

Will Thomas saved the third consecutive game with Marion at Willis park Thursday for the Champs, by a marvelous catch in the eighth, and his timely single in the last of the same frame scored Carley Blount with the winning run.

Had Marion played clean afield the wallops would have been victories. Again the Champs were distressed in hitting. Ten hits were made by Drumm's men to four by the Champs, but Billy Thomas kept the ball in the hands of the catchers' hits well strung out, while two of the Champs' quartet came when needed. Stranger yet, the Line Burners hit for 14 bases, while Youngstown's safe drives were for only a base apiece and of the four only allowed time to spare on the path to first, and that one counted for naught. Blount sent out the bingle with nonchalant ease to the eighth, Jake Daubert smothered out what the fan folk with a groun pronounced a double. It was a fine hit far over fielder Bill's head and close to the line. Thomas was off with the crack of the bat and after a good hard run he made a wild jump into the air and to the surprise of himself and the crowd, speared the ball.

It was a very lucky piece of holding and retired the side and saved the day for Youngstown.

Fiddler Bill's chance came with two down and Blount on third and Breen on second. He hit to My-lett over the second base. The drive was slow and Thomas would have beaten a perfect throw. Tommy seized it, and Blount, who registered as the hit, was followed home by Breen on the lead throw.

The Champs' other run, in the fifth, was a hitless one. Manager Drumm dropped a fly by McClintock and Bannon moved over to second. Ostdieck fled out to Drumm. Billy Thomas, lucky Billy, drove one at Bill Dithridge that the roly poly infielder muffed. McClintock dug for third on the miff. "Dit" pegged for the last corner but missed by a mile, the ball going into the carriage yard. McClintock ambled to the plate.

A clash between Red Farrell and Bill Smink helped and hindered the sojourners. Red said something not to the liking of the portly ump at the start of the second and for his superlative remark the brick-topped one was sentenced to the bench.

Manager Drumm went in. Ferdinando smashed out one as he used to when he starred as a second base er. Two srikes and two balls were on Red. Ferdi punched the first one over for a triple, sending the ball over McClintock almost to the right pallisade. He scored on a Texas leaguer by Dithridge that dropped between Cap Starr and Carley Blount. The triple wasn't all the Marion boss did. He made the first single in the eighth and would have scored but for Thomas' great catch.

Had not Tommy Mylett made a bold, bad dash for third in the third round it might have been different, too. Tommy cut loose from second with a pitch. Osce whipped the ball down to Hilley, who groped around and waited for Tommy.

Right after that Blake tripped.

Billy Thomas' pitching showed the effects of overwork. He was not the usual brilliant Bill. He issued three passes at critical times. Fine support saved him.

Billy had to fight all the way to keep above the water line. Danger threatened in the ninth. After Lar-sons and Luskay had been shelved in the final frame the Girard had passed Pitcher Burk. Mylett hit Burk going to third. Tim Flood smashed out two vicious fouls, but could only drive one at Cap Starr.

Two double plays helped immensely.

Blount caught a sky buster by Dithridge in the sixth and whipped the ball to Bannon before Ferdi Drumm could even think of starting back. The ninth started badly but was saved by Breen and Starr making a lightning telescope. Lucas was passed to start with, Luskay hit to Breen who doubled Lucas at second and Cap pegged to third ahead of the stocky catcher. The score:

Schwartz on Neff's attempted sacrifice and Elston scored the only run of the game. Armstrong's work in the box was great. Four times
